SEWING OF QUILT TOP: Seam allowance is 1/4".

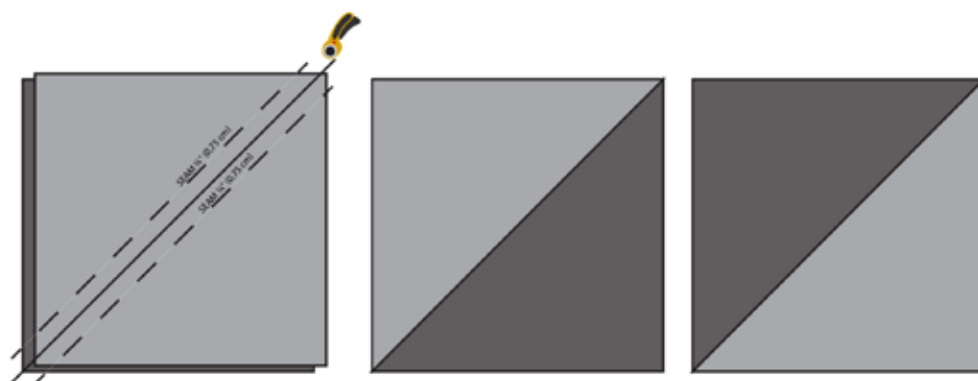

The quilt is made with blocks joined as half square triangles (HST).

Many of the motifs in the fabrics have orientation so motifs are turning upwards. See next page if you would like this look.

The easy method if you want the motifs to be randomly placed, see below.

Take the red squares in fabric A, C, E, G, H & J and draw a diagonal line from one corner to another. Draw the line randomly as you like.

Now take one square in red fabric as above and one square in off white fabric B, D, F, I & K. With right sides together, sew on both sides of the drawn line. Cut at the drawn line and two squares come forward, see sketch.

Overview of half square triangles (Note: red fabric is mentioned as the first letter):

Fabric A+D: 1 square (= 2 half square triangles)

Fabric A+K: 3 squares (use 5)

Fabric C+I: 4 squares

Fabric E+I: 2 squares

Fabric H+D: 2 squares

Fabric J+D: 2 squares

Fabric J+I: 2 squares

Fabric A+F: 4 squares

Fabric C+F: 3 squares

Fabric E+D: 5 squares (use 9)

Fabric G+B: 7 squares

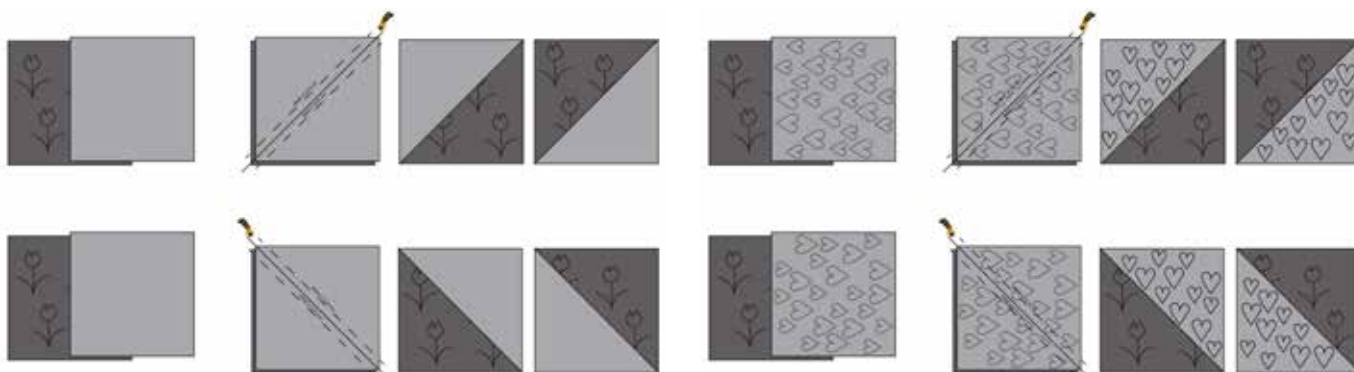

Fabric H+K: 5 squares (use 9)

Fabric J+F: 2 squares (use 3)

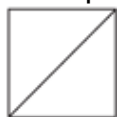

If you would like the motifs to have same direction as the layout on page 4, pls. take care when drawing the line, see below sketches if you have only one fabric with orientation or both fabrics have orientation.

Overview of half square triangles (Note: red fabric is mentioned as the first letter):

Fabric A+D: 1 square

Fabric A+F: 1 square (use 1)

Fabric C+F: 2 squares (use 3)

Fabric C+I: 4 squares (no orientation)

Fabric E+D: 2 squares (use 3)

Fabric E+I: 1 square

Fabric G+B: 4 squares

Fabric H+D: 2 squares (no orientation)

Fabric H+K: 2 squares (use 3)

Fabric J+D: 1 square

Fabric A+F: 4 squares (use 7)

Fabric A+K: 3 squares (use 5)

Fabric C+F: 2 squares (use 3)

Fabric E+D: 3 squares

Fabric E+I: 1 square

Fabric G+B: 3 squares

Fabric H+K: 3 squares

Fabric J+D: 1 square

Fabric J+F: 2 squares (use 3)

Fabric J+I: 2 squares

Trim each block to size 7½" x 7½".

Position the squares as layout on page 4. Join the squares into rows and afterwards join the rows. The quilt top is now created.

QUILTING AND BINDING:

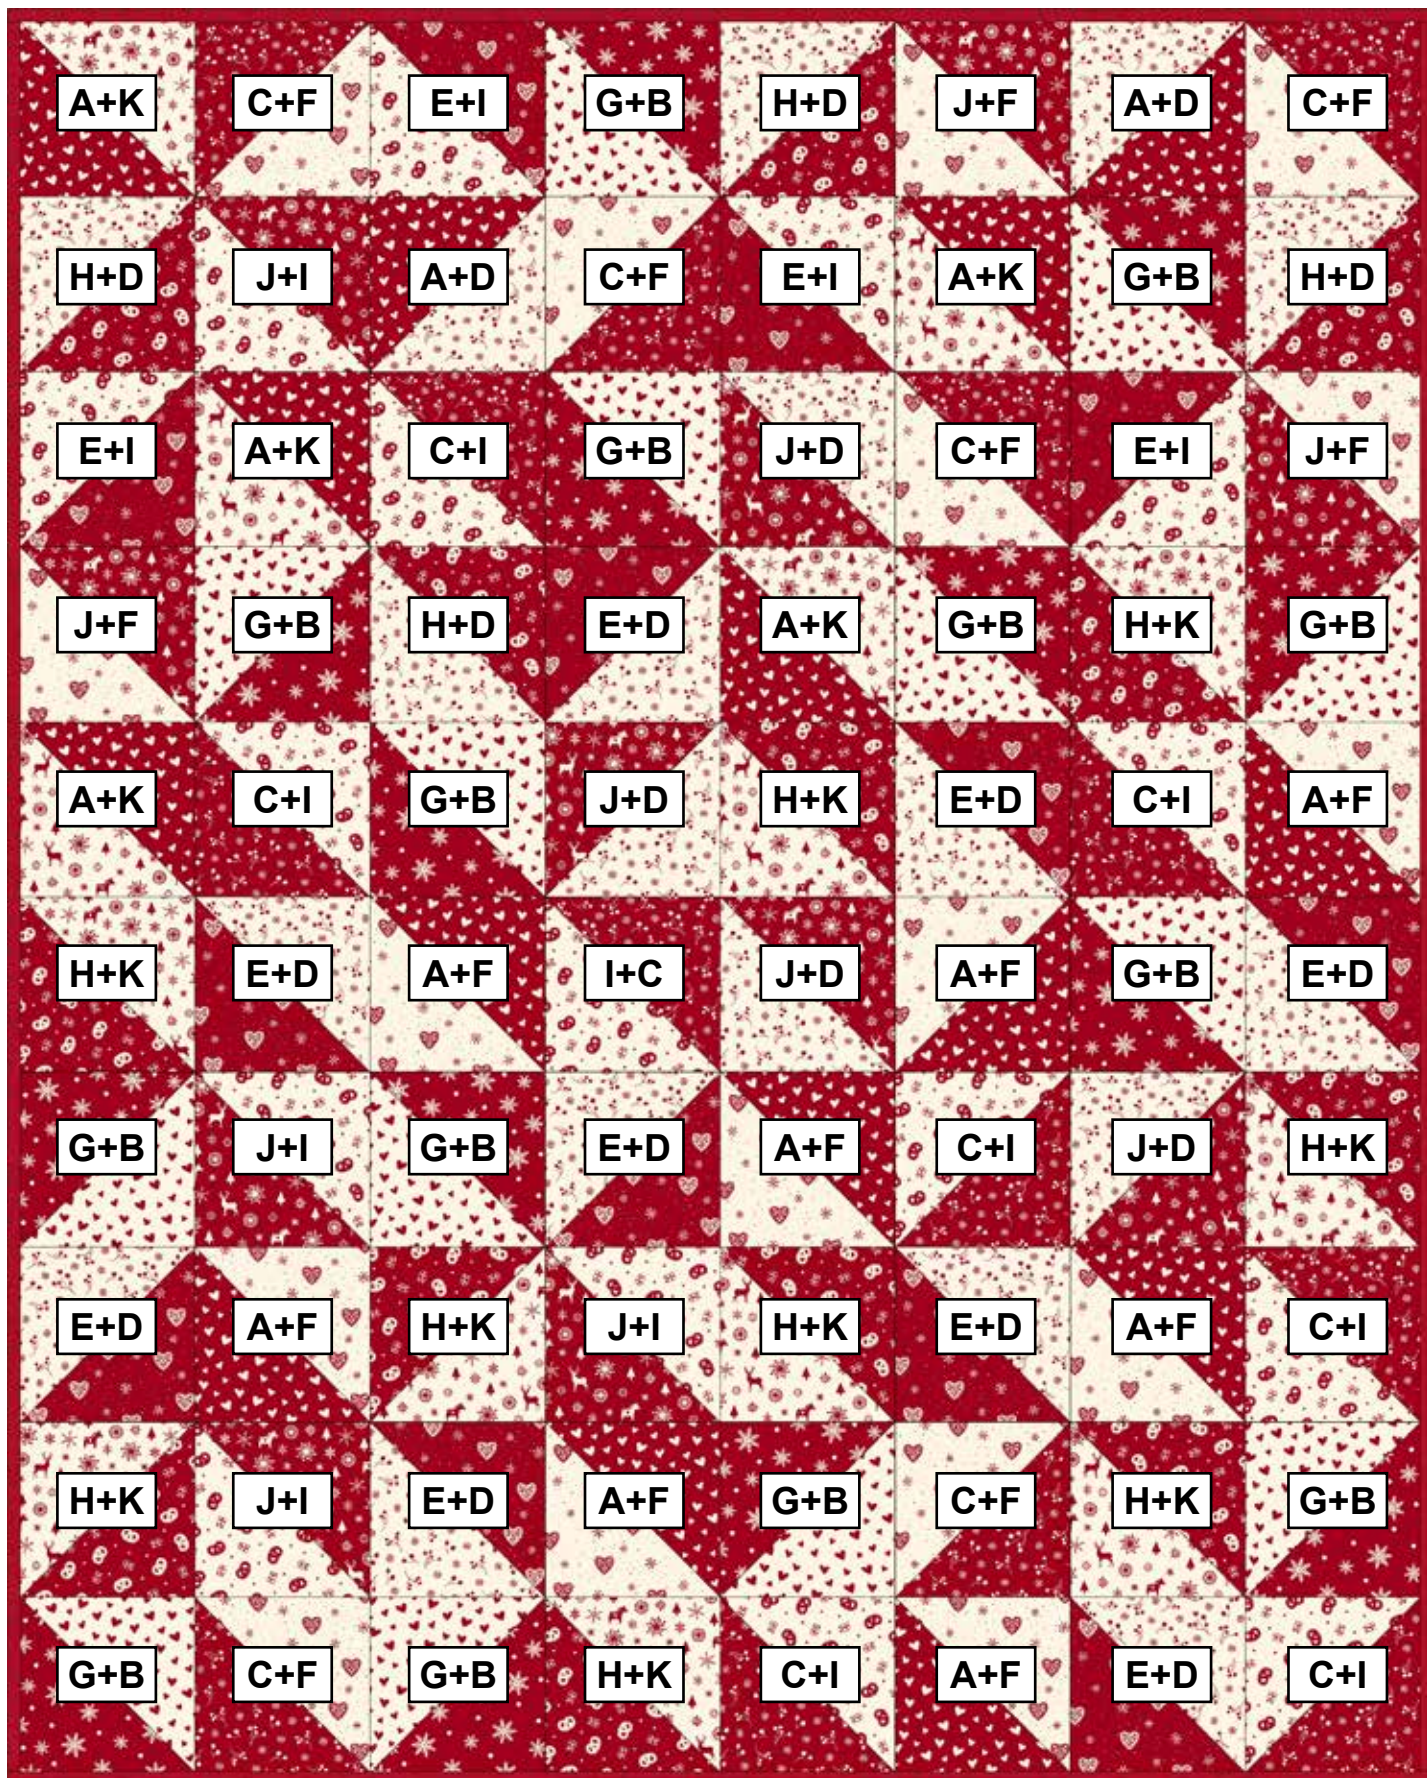

Layer top, batting and backing fabric and baste the pieces.
